WHY ARE WE HERE?

The Center exists for two main reasons:

1. To help the families of deployed service men and women by providing a link with the community to help give support and services where needed.
2. To help the service member on the ground stay focused on their mission by alleviating stresses and concerns for their families at home.

WHO ARE WE?

The staff and volunteers of the Center are made up of individuals many of whom have ties to the military. Husbands, wives, children, parents and grandparents want to help the service men and women during their deployment by assisting the families here at home. It is a rewarding way to serve our country on the home front while our military serves our nation abroad.
